TRADE PACTS WIN VICTORY

Move To Require Senate Ratification Defeated In Close Vote.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 30—The reciprocal trade program a fundamental administration policy and potential campaign issue survived a crucial senate test late yesterday when a three vote majority killed an amendment to require senate ratification of trade agreements

Administration lieutenants who considered the amendment a death warrant for the program were jubilant over the 44 to 41 vote

Senator Harrison (D Miss) floor manager for the legislation extending the program three years told reporters

"The fight is over now I think we'll pass the bill Tuesday"

Foes of the trade policy made it clear however that they would keep on fighting for other restrictive amendments

Yesterday's vote found Republicans solidly for the ratification The amendment—which sought to make trade agreements ineffective until approved by a two thirds senate majority—was supported by the 21 Republicans present 18 Democrats one Progressive and one Farmer-Laborite Opposing were 43 Democrats and one Independent

The vote was regarded as a major victory for Secretary Hull who has preached reciprocal trade ever since he took office

Jampacked galleries followed every detail intently as the senate reached the most dramatic moment in its current session. Visiting house members crowded the floor and there was an atmosphere of marked tension when 4 p m came—the appointed hour for the vote

Two Democrats who had been uncommitted until yesterday—Donahey of Ohio and Schwartz of Wyoming—voted against the ratification proposal and were credited widely with saving the administration's prestige A switch of two votes would have made the score aye—43 nay—42

Housewife Upheld in Fight Against Bertrand Russell

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK March 30—A state supreme court justice today upheld the application of a Brooklyn housewife for an order to revoke the appointment of Bertrand Russell as a professor of mathematics at the City College of New York

Justice John E McGeehan termed the appointment of the English philosopher "a chair of indecency"

Appointment of Russell which was to have taken effect next February raised an immediate storm of protest from church figures and others Educators on the other hand came to his defense terming the controversy a challenge to academic freedom

The court case was brought by Mrs Jean Kay whose high school daughter she said might some day attend the college

After reviewing various criminal statutes pertaining to crimes of sex and perversion some of which crimes Mrs Kay in her petition charged were advocated by Russell Justice McGeehan said it was "repugnant to the common welfare" to encourage violation of the provisions of the penal law

TWO ARRESTED FOR BREAKINS

Youths Confess Entering Marion Business Places, Police Report.

Two Marion youths, 19 and 25 were reported by police today to have admitted being implicated in a series of breakins here last week in which eight business places were burglarized

Both were being held on open charges at City prison at noon today but Police Chief Marks said charges of breaking and entering probably would be filed this afternoon Their names were not released pending filing of the charges.

Confessions Reported

One of the youths was arrested Wednesday morning and the other early Thursday morning police reported Since then both have been questioned frequently and have confessed to breakins at the Gene Hill filling station at North Greenwood and Farming streets the night of March 19 and at the Disbennett service station at North Main and Fairground streets two nights later

The youths also admitted they were implicated in the theft of a car owned by W H Houghton of 396 East Church street which was found abandoned in Columbus yesterday Chief Marks reported The car was stolen from a garage at the Houghton residence March 20 a few hours after the Hill filling station and three uptown garages were broken into

Carrying Pistol

The 19-year-old youth, police said was carrying a 32 calibre pistol stolen in the breakin at the Disbennett filling station at the time of his arrest

Police said that while neither youth has admitted being involved in all eight breakins the investigation now being made by the department probably will clear up at least a majority of them

The breakins on the night of March 19 included the Hill filling station the Ed C Walters garage on East Center street the Lautenslager Oldsmobile Inc garage and the Danner Buick Co both on North Main street The series on the night of March 21 included the breakins at the Disbennett filling station and others at the Kimble Hi-Speed service station at East Church and High streets the F F Williams & Sons grocery on Ballentine avenue and the Christian grocery at North State and Fairground streets

Loot in all eight burglaries amounted to only about $30 in money and merchandise in addition to the pistol, police reported.

5 MAIN STREET TIRE STORE ENTERED

Burglars broke into the Harrall Tire store at 194 South Main street last night or early today but apparently were frightened away before they had time to loot the store, police reported.

The breakin was discovered about 1 a. m. by Patrolman Vic Gillis while he was patrolling the uptown beat. Entrance was gained by breaking glass in a rear window with a brick, police reports show.

CAPITAL DENIES NAZI CLAIMS OF U. S. WAR ACTS

President Questions Authenticity of Documents; Hull Speaks Bluntly

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON March 30—The authenticity of documents produced by German officials as evidence that American policy helped loose war on Europe was challenged emphatically in administration quarters today

President Roosevelt was the first to comment after the documents—purportedly found in captured Polish archives—were published in Berlin He declared that propaganda from abroad should be taken with several grains of salt

Secretary of State Hull spoke bluntly He declared that the state department placed not the slightest credence in the conversations related in the German white book and denied that the war like attitude they set forth represented "in any way the country's foreign policy

William C Bullitt, the United States ambassador to France and Count Jerzy Potocki Polish ambassador to the United States—two diplomats whose names figured prominently in the Berlin collection—both rejected as untrue the statements imputed to them in the documents

President Raises Ante

At his press conference late yesterday Mr Roosevelt commented that he thought everybody should take with a grain of salt any propaganda that was put out in Europe today A little later he amended his remark to make it two grains of salt and a little later he raised the amount to three grains

Secretary Hull referred not only to the white book's representation of American policy but also to the war-encouraging expressions attributed in the documents to Bullitt and Joseph P Kennedy, the United States ambassador to Great Britain

"I may say most emphatically" Hull declared in a formal statement that neither I nor any of my associates in the department of state have ever heard of such conversations as those alleged nor do we give them the slightest credence The statements alleged have not represented in any way at any time the thought or the policy of the American government"

Bullitt Denies It

Bullitt—who according to the white book assured a Polish diplomat that America would finish any war on the side of the allies—disclaimed the statements attributed to him

Referring to the President's suggestion of three grains of salt Bullitt said

"This piece of propaganda should be taken with even more salt"

The ambassador is at present in this country

Count Potocki called the Berlin publication "obviously for propaganda purposes"

"I deny the allegations attributed to my reports" he said "I never had any conversations with Ambassador Bullitt on America's participation in war"

Woman Hurt in 2 Mishaps on Way to Mother's Rites

Special to The Star

NEVADA March 30—Enroute to her mother's funeral here Mrs. Inez Williams of Cleveland was seriously injured early yesterday when she was hit by a truck after her own automobile had skidded into a ditch near Norwalk

Mrs Williams is the daughter of Mrs Louela Kuenzli of Nevada who died Thursday Funeral services will be held at 2 30 p m Sunday at the Hender & Lucas funeral home as originally planned Burial will be in Nevada cemetery

Mrs Williams and a chauffeur were driving from Cleveland to Nevada when their car skidded on the wet pavement between Norwalk and Milan and upset in the ditch Neither was seriously hurt and they started to walk down the road to seek help It was still rather dark at 5 a m and the weather was foggy

Neither Mrs Williams nor the chauffeur saw the truck as it approached The truck driver saw them at the last moment applied his brakes and skidded into Mrs Williams Both legs were broken below the knees and she also suffered other injuries The chauffeur was unhurt

Mrs. Williams was taken to a Norwalk hospital where her condition today was described as serious but not critical

Her sister Mrs Esther Dobbins of Bucyrus and brother Clayton Kuenzli of near Upper Sandusky went to Norwalk yesterday afternoon and were able to talk with Mrs. Williams briefly They returned last night.

Mrs Williams is widely known here having lived in Nevada until her marriage several years ago

DIES SUDDENLY

EARL GRIFFITH

Bricker Tribute

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 30—Text of Gov John W Bricker's statement on death of Secretary of State Earl Griffith

We are all shocked and greatly distressed at the death of Earl Griffith secretary of state He has been a fine public servant devoting long hours and all of his energy to the office

Ohio has not only lost a fine citizen and public official but I feel very keenly the loss of a long time personal friend—a friendship which dates back to earliest associations in political life

"I shall ever be grateful for one of the campaigns when I was a successful candidate which was managed by Mr Griffith His life and his service will be an inspiration to others to give of their time to public life

MT. GILEAD MAN IS VICTIM OF SUDDEN ATTACK

Stricken at 5 A M, While Apparently Recovering from 5-Day Illness

Special to The Star

MT GILEAD, March 30—Secretary of State Earl Griffith of Mt Gilead, for many years a leader in Eighth district and state Republican affairs died suddenly of a heart attack at 5 a m, today in White Cross hospital at Columbus Death came after a five-day illness from which he apparently had been recovering

He became ill Monday at his Columbus office and was taken to the hospital for treatment. Yesterday it was believed he had shown improvement but early today he took a sudden turn for the worse and suffered the fatal attack

Mr Griffith was widely known in Marion having spoken at party rallies here several times

He was 62 years old

Had Been Resting Easily

His family was absent from the hospital when death came having left last night when they were told that he seemed to be resting easily The family had been in Columbus since he was taken ill

His wife and three children, who had gone to a hotel after remaining at the bedside until after 10 p m were notified that he had suffered a relapse and were hurrying back to the hospital when Mr Griffith died

His physician Dr Link Murphy said Mr Griffith was conscious until shortly before the end He termed his death "rather sudden"

Saturday Mr Griffith had three teeth extracted and had told associates at Mt Gilead that he felt weak, However, friends here could not recall today that he had ever complained of his heart prior to the first attack, shortly before noon Monday

He had suffered from chronic bronchitis for several winters

Mr Griffith's heart ailment had been aggravated by asthma and he was kept under an oxygen tent in an effort to alleviate the condition

Funeral services have been arranged for Monday at 2 30 p m in Mt Gilead with burial in Rivercliff cemetery. It is expected that many state officials and Republican party leaders together with representatives of Masonic and other lodges in which Mr. Griffith was active, will attend

The body was brought to the Craven funeral home here today. The family returned to Mt Gilead just before noon today

Capitol Flag Lowered

The flag above the state capitol at Columbus was dipped to half-staff today in memory of Mr Griffith

Gov Bricker notified of the secretary's death said Mr Griffith's "life and his service will be an inspiration to others to give of their time to public life"

The governor had left early today for Chardon to attend a festival apparently unaware of the death.

In addition to his political interests, Mr Griffith was active in the newspaper publishing business, having operated the weekly Morrow County Sentinel for the last 26 years. The paper was acquired by his family in the 1860's when it was only a few years old. His grandfather, John Griffith, developed the paper and later his father, [illegible]

Marion Police Radio Station Gets License To Operate 2-Way System

New Equipment for Complete Communication Service Expected Soon.

A federal communications commission license to place Police Radio Station WJJI on a two way basis was received by the city yesterday and Police Chief Marks announced that the new equipment needed for the two way station probably will arrive here within the next week or two

The license received yesterday provides for construction and installation of two portable-mobile transmitters to be used in police cruisers so that officers in the cruisers can keep in two way communication with the central radio transmitter at the police station

The two way equipment can be operated on the "construction" license for a short test period but after the equipment is installed it will be necessary to apply for a permanent license Chief Marks explained

The two way equipment consisting of compact transmitters placed in the cruisers is being constructed by the Transmitter Equipment Manufacturing Co of New York City and is being purchased by proceeds from the second annual police and firemen's ball held here last June The same company constructed the main one way transmitter which was purchased last year with proceeds from the first police and firemen's ball

The two way equipment which will supplement and not replace the present equipment will operate on a frequency of 30 000 kilocycles an ultra-high frequency which is out of the range of the ordinary shortwave receiver

The two way equipment when installed will make it possible for officers at the police headquarters to keep in constant two way communication with the officers in cruisers. As the radio set-up now operates messages are transmitted from the headquarters to the cruisers but it is impossible for the men in the cruisers to contact headquarters by radio.

MARKET MOVES HIGHER TODAY

War Influence Helps Stocks Gain Ground; Steels and Aircrafts Lead.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 30—The stock market took on a slight "war bride" appearance today and selected issues, led by steels, aircrafts and specialties, pushed up fractions to more than a point.

The list ran into considerable profit taking on the bulge, however, but prices held near the best at the close.

Dealings, relatively fast in the first hour, slowed as the session approached the finish and traders cashed some of their gains. Transfers of around 600,000 shares, though, were the largest for any Saturday so far this year.

Reports of heavy export demand for steel products, both from neutral nations and belligerents, combined with fears expressed by the President at his late press conference yesterday that any "immediate" peace in Europe was hardly likely, tended to stimulate stocks in the hard metal group. At the same time, continued apathy of domestic steel consumers served to cloud the picture.

Prominent on the upside during most of the proceedings were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry, Bendix, Curtiss-Wright "A," McKesson & Robbins common and preferred, Dow Chemical, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Montgomery Ward, Chrysler, Western Union and Du Pont.

Backward were Westinghouse and Union Carbide. Utilities lost their pull of the preceding session, while coppers, oils, rubbers and the majority of the rails jogged over a narrow trail.

Bonds, with low-priced rails likely, did better. Major commodities tilted higher after a hesitant get-away.

Stocks and Bonds

Sales today: stocks 471,180, bonds 1,510,000.

Stock sales yesterday 836,370; Bonds, 6,975,200.

Boston Wool

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, March 30—Very little business was transacted in the Boston wool market during the past week. Users operated very cautiously and confined purchases of new wools to small quantities required for immediate needs. Quotations on domestic wools were steady to slightly easier, but they were largely nominal because of the limited amount of trading. Graded combing bright fleece wools were quoted steady at 35 to 37 cents in the grease, for fine delaine, and at 36 to 38 cents, in the grease, for one-half, three eighths and quarter blood grades.

Text— For as many as are led by the Spirit of God the sons of God"—Rom. 8 14

THE universal brotherhood of man is a nice thing to think about but so far as being able to [illegible] a relationship in spirit among men universally [illegible]

I know God's call is universal and His salvation is universal and He is a universal God but He is the God only of those who will [illegible] Him to be so

The church's business is not to save the world but to preach the gospel and [illegible] and to salvage as many as will yield to Him

THE universal brotherhood of man hinges upon the Fatherhood of God. It may be popular to infer that all are brothers and God is the Father of all of us but popular statements are not always true statements It was the disciples who asked Jesus to teach them to pray when Jesus responded—Lk 11 2 When ye pray say Our Father etc His disciples and not the sinning unbelieving world were thus instructed Unsaved man you can say the Lord's prayer but you cannot pray it unless you change some of the wording I don't want everybody in the community calling me father but I am pleased when my children call me father Just so [illegible] He said of some— Ye [illegible] father the devil [illegible] works of the devil [illegible] God's children and children and they [illegible] in common and are [illegible] relationship

THE brotherhood [illegible] plies mutual [illegible] one of the concerned [illegible] true church and the [illegible] divided in [illegible] church works for [illegible] through faith in Christ [illegible] moral reform while [illegible] world's blindly and [illegible] ing to bring about [illegible] tions by employing [illegible] destructive agencies. [illegible] duction of lottery [illegible] and state debt. The [illegible] ment to manufacture [illegible] liquor to stimulate [illegible] and circulate money [illegible] mating in some [illegible] is all to promote [illegible] conditions The [illegible] with their huge ad[illegible] gram claiming to be [illegible] a product which [illegible] and is a panacea for [illegible] ailment Thus the [illegible] world proceeds on a d[illegible] mis The children o[illegible] line up with the prog[illegible] children of the devil. [illegible] in a well ordered [illegible] together for the [illegible] spiritual interests of e[illegible] ber of the family, bu[illegible] brothers to each othe[illegible] children blindly [illegible] stroy the other men [illegible] family morally spi[illegible] physically

THE brotherhood o[illegible] plies a common [illegible] Surely the children [illegible] expect to fall heir to [illegible] er's possessions Our Father left His last wil[illegible] ment It is the word [illegible] is to be read upon th[illegible] the testator Jesus C[illegible] Son yea God Himself [illegible] 1900 years ago and E[illegible] this fact in our mem[illegible] fore let us read His [illegible]

But as many as re[illegible] to them gave he po[illegible] come the sons of G[illegible] them that believe on [illegible] John 1 12

For as many as are [illegible] Spirit of God they a[illegible] of God Romans 8 [illegible]

And if children [illegible] heirs of God and join[illegible] Christ if so be that [illegible] with him that we m[illegible] glorified together R[illegible]

Only God's children [illegible] to reap the benefits [illegible] Whose child are you [illegible] satan's?

Houghton Sulky Co. Equipment on Way to Largest Circus in World

New "Do-See-Do" Among Elaborate Vehicles Sent to Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey Show.

Elaborate products of the Houghton Sulky Co. were on their way to New York where they will be used in the grand [illegible] of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey circus, "the greatest show on earth."

The equipment, occupying an entire freight car, was the largest in recent years to the circus. The circus will open the 1940 season April 5 in Madison Square Garden and for the first time in [illegible] years, W. H. Houghton, president of the Marion company, will not be on hand. Mr. Houghton, who underwent a major operation recently, is in Grant hospital at Columbus for observation. His condition is not serious, friends reported today.

New Product

Included in today's shipment were two units of a new Houghton product—the Do-See-Do—which is typical of the Gay Nineties "After the Ball". A Houghton [illegible] model and a Viceroy were also shipped along with two sulkies. All but the sulkies are to be used in a sort of Gay Nineties revue, filled with fancy show horses and equally beautiful girls, the company here understands.

The Houghton equipment, painstakingly constructed and polished up, has been under construction since December.

The Do-See-Do is a two-seated job in three tones of maroon and silver. Two pairs of girls will be seated opposite each other and on a little stage in the front will be a footman and driver.

The Victoria is a black rig with silver trim. It has a hood over the seat and is drawn by two horses.

One-Horse Vehicle

The Viceroy is a one-horse shay—if it can be called a shay—with a seat for two. It is finished in maroon, silver and black with chromium wheels and pneumatic tires.

All the show equipment is luxuriously finished in rich colors and upholstery.

The company reported that business generally is excellent in each of its two main lines—sulkies and show buggies.

POLICE SET TO OPEN DRIVE ON PARKING

Two-Hour Limit To Be Enforced Beginning Monday.

Police Chief Marks today repealed a warning that a drive against overtime parking in the uptown business district will begin Monday in an effort to help relieve the traffic and parking problem here.

Rigid enforcement of the two-hour parking ordinance on several uptown streets will be continued indefinitely as a permanent policy of the police department, he said. Strict enforcement of the ordinance was one of the recommendations made in the report of a recent traffic survey here.

On all of the principal streets in the uptown district, parking is limited to two hours from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and patrolmen have received instructions to make an hourly check-up of the parked cars, Chief Marks said. Cars found to be violating the ordinance will be "taged" with regular police department citations ordering the driver to appear in traffic court the following Friday morning.

The streets on which parking is restricted to two hours are marked with oval-shaped yellow and black signs located on light posts along the curb. They are: Center from Baker to the C. & O. railroads, Church from State to Prospect, State from Mill to Church, Main from George to Columbia and Prospect from Mill to the second alley south of Church.

Leap Before You Look

By Peggy O More

YESTERDAY Thinking Dotty Dougherty has betrayed her Tomi sends her a telegram firing her The bus [illegible] to Los Angeles is a failure Allen takes Tomi out [illegible] and she realizes she [illegible] him

Desertion

TOMI was surprised to see Dotty Dougherty at the gate

I fired you Miss Dougherty she informed the woman coolly

Dotty took the handbags away from her You can't fire people these days she remarked I took it up with the NLRB and they said to give you another chance If you didn't behave yourself I could have your frogs picketed

A small giggle escaped Tomi and then she remembered

But I can't have people around me who can't be trusted

I should say not agreed Dotty and pushed Tomi onto the divan removed her hat took off her high heeled street shoes and replaced them with house slippers She hurried into the kitchen and returned wheeling a tea cart

As soon as I received the wire she continued as though there had been no time lapse I went into action You'd been betrayed somewhere between the farm and Los Angeles I thought Allen might be up to something so I called his home and the maid told me he'd left for the South on the same train you were on and could be reached at the same hotel I'd told you about As I hadn't told him I started looking around for the fellow who had It was Abe

Abe cried Tomi I'll attend to him

Whoa now wait a minute warned Dotty He didn't know you wanted it kept a secret Allen drove him to Alameda when his car broke down He was there when he got your reservation and probably bought one for himself at the same time

Next morning Abe took the telegraph office All he'd have to do there would be to listen to the operator read the message back to Abe and he'd know where Tomi was making reservations

Tomi nodded But Dotty how didn't Abe tell me he had met Allen and had been with him all of that time

Mrs Daugherty chuckled Abe said he'd rather have you think he had double-crossed you than to admit the car had broken down again And that my love is what you get for teasing him about his tin frog

Tomi leaned back relieved The light supper was delicious the hot tea fragrant and refreshing She was home She had had Dotty and Abe—and—

Where is Pierre? she asked

I guess he didn't see me come in

I guess not agreed Dotty in a peculiar tone You see—well Tomi Pierre isn't with us any more He's gone back to Louisiana

Tomi felt as though some foundation upon which she was depending had given way Had Pierre been called home by illness Dotty wouldn't have spoken in that peculiar tone

But for Pierre to leave without waiting to see her to leave while she was out of town!

Didn't find a note pinned to his pillow did you? she asked flippantly

Mrs Dougherty shook her head No he didn't take a chance of its being unpinned He mailed a letter to you via Uncle Sam She handed Tomi a thin envelope and bustled out of the room with the dishes

Tomi opened the letter slowly A glance at the message told her it was not a love letter It had been prepared by a public stenographer Puzzled she read

Dear Miss Toland —

I am sorry to leave during your absence but my father is anxious to have me return to New Orleans immediately

I have enjoyed my brief stay at the farm

If you are ever in New Orleans and are still interested in ranaculture you might drop me a line and I will have someone call for you and take you on a tour of our holdings

Very truly yours
Pierre Prudhomme

Tomi read the letter three times then wondered why she felt so ill It must have been the shock Pierre had gone away and dared to leave this stilted note [illegible] had [illegible] her [illegible] had wanted to care for her to protect her to fight Allen in [illegible]

He was all right Saturday she thought And Sunday when he drove me to the train he kissed me goodby and promised to keep [illegible] for me

Pierre's letter was dated Monday Something had happened between Sunday and Monday morning

Allen Bartell

But Allen was on the train Sunday He was in Los Angeles all day Monday and she had gone out with him Monday night

I'll bet that is why he made that trip she said aloud He wanted me to see he was not responsible and meanwhile he left his dirty work for someone else to do

Slowly Tomi went to her room to stand before the west window and stare blindly into the summer dusk That didn't excuse Pierre Pierre had been the one to speak openly of Allen's underhand methods No matter what had occurred to make him think of flight he should have known it wasn't necessary

And no matter what provocation he had Tomi reasoned If he had loved me just half as much as he said he'd have stayed to warn me

Tomi heard Abe's car go rattling and wheezing out of the yard He hadn't waited to welcome her He was afraid to face her

Downstairs the telephone shrilled Tomi heard Dotty's excited voice then heard her calling as she ran upstairs

Tomi Gladys did break a leg They want me to come right away One of the neighbors is calling for me in her car You'll be all right here alone? Tomorrow's dinner is all ready Gladys slipped on a rug

Tomi helped Mrs Dougherty pack her bag The neighbor was there by the time she was ready

I'll have to stay with the children until she returns from the hospital Dotty sang out as the car drove off

Headlights came towards her The car drove towards the farm then turned left to stop before Allen Bartell's High above the voices of girls and men came one familiar tone

Allen boomed Great-aunt Hannah Toland Lily taught me to truck while you were South Come on A door closed Allen must have flown back

Tomi walked slowly into the dark house She went to her room From the west window she could see the garlands of lights which festooned Neptune Beach the whirl of lights on the ferris wheel the curving line of lights on the roller coaster

She turned to the south window Every window in the Bartell cottage was bright Heads bobbed before them

They aren't inviting me to their party thought Tomi

She'd get away from this room where every window offered a comparison her lonely life in contrast to the happy lives of others

She turned on the lamp beside the divan and sat down looked up Timothy Toland smiled his oil painted smile Tomi's bruised heart eased The old fellow looked kindly

Well Uncle Tim she sighed It looks as though just you and I are left

No Emotions

Tomi faced the future with a bitter curve to her lips and sardonic laughter in her eyes The laughter was for herself directed at the Tomi Toland who had flown out from Chicago She was wiser now

Some good had come of Dotty's and Pierre's desertion In the three months left before the close of the season she would have the nine hundred dollars which would have gone to their salaries By living economically she could save at least an additional two hundred in food and utilities

Much to her amazement the morning mail brought a check from Hannah Toland covering the full amount of the bills incurred by the quarantine

Tomi glanced at the postmark Mailed the previous night Great-aunt Hannah had talked to Allen at the party They had felt sorry for her

For a moment she grasped the check ready to tear it to shreds then she endorsed it She'd need this to win She couldn't indulge in emotions

Tomi made just one business call She went to see the railroad commissary agent She talked for an hour and came out defeated Frog's legs were not a staple commodity

We have to stock our trains with food which appeals to the general public the agent explained Our space is limited We must carry only such perishable foods as will be used each run

At home a key was turned on the dainty feminine clothes The drawers of her wardrobe were filled with chain knit skirts which would require no ironing and khaki breeches

Tomi was awake at dawn For an hour she worked in the garden did the work of the man she had discharged because she was counting pennies but from that hour she drew strength to carry on through the day

The cool dew sweet hour was balm to her bruised spirit The flowers responded to her care Gladioli and delphiniums faded and dahlias and zinnias blazed in their wake These faded to make way for asters and cosmos

The garden had become an entity a child She had to feed and care for it whether it was to be her own or not

WILL THE PENDULUM SWING BACK? These maps show how the Congressional representation changed after the 1930 census, and how it may change after this year's Figures on the forthcoming reapportionment are based on the 1929 law and an estimate of what the 1940 census will show Note that some sections that lost ten years ago will probably gain this time

The Census Man starts knocking at America's door on April 2 He's the symbol of a battle that's been raging for weeks—and may continue for years This is the second of three articles telling what it's all about

By MORGAN M BEATTY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON March 30 — Political heads will roll in the 1940 battle of the census

How many heads is problematical

It depends on

How fast southern mothers produced children during the last 10 years

How many Joad families swapped misery in Oklahoma for misery in California

How many southern lads and lassies chose the old homestead for their port in the storm of the depression instead of the big cities in the north

Moreover congressmen must decide what to do about the decennial man under-the-bed — REAPPORTIONMENT

If you take (1) the latest mathematical doodles of the Census Bureau put em on a slide rule and (2) assume the automatic reapportionment law of 1929 will survive the battle of the census then you find at the end of your trail a gibbet for six congressmen

At least six legislators from the northeastern and midwestern states will lose their $10 000 a year jobs And six congressmen from the South and Far West will grow where no congressmen have sprouted since 1910

That means a gain of at least 12 votes in the House of Representatives for the South and Far West by 1942 They'll pick up six actual votes and benefit also by the death of six northern votes

More Trouble

WASHINGTON — Complicating the 1940 battle of the census is the Reapportionment Law of 1929 which fixes the membership of the House of Representatives at 435 members

Proceeding by a method known as the method of major fractions the 1929 law allots each state its share of 435 representatives for each 280 000 persons or major fraction thereof

If the same law is on the books when the 1940 census is reported the average number of constituents of each Representative will increase to about 300 000 That's because the population is still going up but not the size of the House

Each state can district itself as it pleases—a fact that gives rise to rotten borough troubles in several states.

You can find plenty of statisticians who figure the northeastern states may lose more seats than that Some say 10 or even 12 seats instead of six But the mathematical wizards who figured out reapportionment for me took the conservative side of the street

Always A Struggle

The decennial battle of the census is as old as the nation

As regular as death and taxes one of these struggles has rolled around every 10 years for 150 years running Most of the fights have been settled behind the locked doors of congressional committee rooms without the public shedding of political blood

But the last two times And right out in the open where anybody could get a ringside seat

Roughly speaking these battles were miniature Civil wars—the South vs the North The men from down under defied the Constitution and the Founding Fathers in 1920 They blocked any reapportionment at all and thereby saved themselves from losing seats to the growing North

In 1929 the struggle was even harder and dirtier The South tried to bar aliens from the reapportionment count given to Congress by the census bureau The East has several million aliens The North retaliated by trying to bar negroes Both amendments to the reapportionment law passed It took three days of sizzling conferences to kill both

Today the same old struggle is brewing only the shoe's on the other foot most of the time The South's depression damned emigrant and high birthrate and the West's migrations should give the southerners and westerners six more seats — if everything goes according to Hoyle

Enter Senator Tobey

But that's where Senator Charles William Tobey's sideshow on the income questions comes in For if enough citizens respond to the Senator's excitement—and excitement over one's private affairs is a pretty contagious kind—then the regular census might concen[illegible] suffer from errors and crammed du[illegible]

Some congressmen might take the same view as Congressman Daniel Reed of upstate New York when he says

The census bureau has had the respect and confidence of the people of this country for 150 years However just as sure as NO [illegible] is taken by Congress [illegible] snooping program [illegible] me outside the census [illegible] going to end in [illegible] which [illegible] the value of this regular census is going to be destroyed

The Congressman from New York didn't go into details But suppose the representatives who [illegible] half for a [illegible] section [illegible] lose to [illegible] members in the 1940 census should take the same [illegible] and There are 2[illegible] of those fellows enough to block a new reapportionment [illegible] same way the South blocked [illegible] 1920

Another Detail

Then there's the lame duck technicality By virtue of the lame duck amendment makes the President report the census to the [illegible] long Congress

Under the 1929 law the President is directed to report the 1940 census to the second regular session of the 76th Congress That's the Congress now holding forth on Capitol Hill But the census will hardly be begun before that session [illegible]

The census WILL be ready for the first session of the 77th Congress however and the President doubtless will report to that Congress But a technically minded house with a mind to [illegible] apportionment possible the House clerk to [illegible] President's report made to the wrong [illegible] i e, contrary to law [illegible] the House clerk is [illegible] tells the states how many representatives they are entitled to under the census that [illegible] automatic reapportionment based on the 1940 census

Senator Vandenberg [illegible] Roosevelt and [illegible] census committee [illegible] keep this technicality [illegible] dying the reapportionment [illegible] through an amendment [illegible] 1929 law But that move [illegible] so all fired popular [illegible] members of the House [illegible] sentatives So someone tacked that old [illegible] amendment onto the [illegible] amendment.

Moreover many a [illegible] the House resents the [illegible] apportionment law I[illegible] the Senate remembers Arthur Vandenberg [illegible] and they don't like [illegible] keeping the House's [illegible] der Not a bit of it [illegible] law would freeze [illegible] Representatives at 435

Your Worry

But Goodness knows [illegible] members try to [illegible] seats in their [illegible] they're going to run [illegible] Doubtless some of [illegible] gressmen would find [illegible] out in the capitol [illegible] peting against [illegible] or the tourist trade

No That's not [illegible] so the whole thing [illegible] census battle of the [illegible] on the floor or be[illegible] doors or both

You and I could [illegible] such and forget it [illegible] for the fact that your [illegible] tion in Congress is a [illegible]

BEE LOSSES HEAVY, O. S. U. EXPERT SAYS

Mortality Is Highest Since 1935 36

MBUS O., March 30—Re rning to W. E. Dunham n entomology a Ohio niversity from beekeepe s ate indicate the greatest loss of bees since 1935 36 olonies still li ing but ed will perish unless given ce

Dunham says the bee losses arge in Ohio and other states that there likely rouble in having orders package bees filled early to be of maximum help weather in the south is hin he normal increase of bees the supply of package l be smaller than usual of the first precautions o en in an apiary where colonies have been lost is to close he e of the vacant hives o nt bees from other colonies ng stores of honey Steal honey is one way of spreading e diseases

Restocking hives with packages of bees from the south should be completed by April 10 The frames of old comb in the hives should be brushed to remove dead bees and to permit inspection for any diseased comb The old combs are ideal for starting the new colony when no disease is present

Weak colonies can be straightened by queenless packages of bees The strengthening should be completed the first eight days of April

Beekeepers who have not used package bees to restore or strengthen colonies should obtain extension bulletin No 159 Package Bees for Honey Production from county extension agents The bulletin has full directions for installing the package bees in the apiary when received

Johnny Appleseed Had Good Idea for Pioneer Days

COLUMBUS O., March 30—Johnny Appleseed s idea of planting fruit so it would be available when the pioneers reached Ohio was a smart bit of farm planning in that day and age but is not quite such a blessing in 1940 declares F H Beach specialist in horticulture of Ohio State university

When Johnny Appleseed was poking apple seeds into holes dug with a stick in forest openings farming was on a subsistence basis The first essential was to gather enough produce from the earth to sustain the farmer s family and fruit provided some of the food elements not furnished by wheat and pork

Today farming is essentially a business where the products of the soil are traded for things needed by the farmer and his family The tendency is to specialize in the production of one of a few farm products for which the farm and the locality is best suited

Johnny Appleseed left the tradition that each farm should have an orchard Modern conditions have tended to concentrate fruit production on specialized farms where the volume of fruit will permit the purchase of expensive equipment Tradition and practice have not worked out too well together

Ohio had 149 951 farms which reported having apple trees in 1935 That census also showed that 129 874 of these farms had fewer than 100 apple trees. Only 593 farms in Ohio had more than 1 000 apple trees.

Farmers having only a few trees can not afford to spend much time and money in caring for them so they produce very little fruit in years of light crops However when the big crop years arrive these small orchards add to an already over abundance of fruit that can be sold only for a low price

Ohio growers in 1939 were forced to ask the Federal Surplus Commodities Corp to buy Ohio surplus apples Many of the owners of large orchards are removing some of their older trees or those belonging to varieties that have become unpopular

Mr Beach points out that efforts to organize the apple growers in Ohio are almost useless because the majority of farmers have so few trees that they will not join any group interested in improving grades of apples or marketing conditions It is the specialist s opinion that a Sammy Sawerdown could help the Ohio apple business as much now as Johnny Appleseed did years ago

SOUTHERN WOOD PULP USED FOR NEWSPRINT

New Method Reported for Paper Making

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO March 30—A new method of producing new print utilizing southern gum semi chemical pulp with pine ground wood was reported today to the national farm chemurgic conference

Dr Carlile P Winslow director of the U S forest products laboratory of Madison Wis said newsprint paper made by the new process on a laboratory scale equaled average commercial newsprint

Newsprint probably could be produced cheaper by this method than by the process used at the Lufkin Texas mill which manufactures new print from southern pine he said

In addition Dr Winslow said the new method enhances the prospect of a greater and more profitable use of farm woodl s in the south Red and black gums constitute a major group among southern hardwoods he said

Dr Winslow reported manufacturers showing an increased interest in the commercial application of plastics from wood waste thus possibly foreshadowing a new demand for farm timber

SERICEA RECOMMENDED AS A DURABLE PLANT

WASHINGTON — A plant that will grow where others can not is a plant much in demand Such a plant is lespedeza sericea and according to Dr A J Peters author of a publication released by the U S department of agriculture dealing with the legume it is one of the most valuable soil conserving plants now in use on eroding clay soils

The publication—Circular No 534 entitled Lespedeza Sericea and Other Perennial Lespedezas for Forage and Soil Conservation—discusses the culture uses habits and qualities of sericea

A mature stand of sericea will measure four to five feet high and the woody and widely branched roots penetrate the soil to a depth of more than three feet In Arkansas sericea withstood a five day overflow that killed alfalfa and in Alabama it survived annual overflows that damaged Johnson grass the publication reports

FEED COWS WELL TO MAKE THEM PAY

Liberal Feeding Should Precede Culling of Dairy Herd

What is a profitable dairy cow? This is a question many dairymen are asking as the winter s supply of silage and hay dwindles day after day

The dairyman s reason for milking is closely associated with the profit motive Conserving soil fertility providing an outlet for family labor and marketing coarse roughages otherwise unsalable are secondary objectives

Maximum profits are impossible unless every member of the milking herd pays her board bill (feed cost) and an equal sum for rent or other overhead expense Herds culled by association members did not reach this goal last year until their production amounted to at least 8 000 pounds of milk annually Since many herd owners are not supplied with individual records the best they can do is to make similar comparisons based on the average returns received from the sales of dairy products.

This would mean about 2½ gallons of milk per cow daily throughout the year Many cows fail to reach this production Nor does the fault all lie with the cow Disease lack of suitable feeds irregular and inefficient methods of management all tend to limit production

On the farms where feed supplies are likely to run low before pastures grow green dairymen will find it to their advantage to dispose of one or more of the lowest producers thus assuring a liberal daily feed allowance for the remainder rather than keep a stable filled with poorly fed unprofitable cows Not until a cow has been well cared for for at least six months can the owner safely brand her as a boarder A cow may not pay her way in a herd where she is half starved moved to a herd where she is liberally fed she often proves a money maker Liberal feeding should precede culling

OHIO GROWN TOMATOES NOW SOLD IN FLORIDA

Cold Weather in South Opens New Market

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O., March 30—Ohio tomatoes grown in hothouses during the winter are being sold as far south as Florida the state department of agriculture reported today

The wide demand resulted from cold weather which crippled normal production in the south

Much of the produce is being shipped from the Cleveland area where more than 250 acres of vegetables are being cultivated under glass Prices of $2 50 for an eight pound basket were about three times the season average

Trailing Cleveland in the hothouse industry are Toledo with about 80 acres Ashtabula with 60 and Cincinnati with 50 Another 80 acres are scattered through the state

QUICK PEACE CHANCES SLIM

[illegible] Immediate Prospect of [illegible]ng War, President Tells Press Conference

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON March 30 — President Roosevelt says there is no immediate prospect for a just and lasting peace in Europe but that the information Sumner Welles obtained will be of greatest value when the time comes to establish peace.

The Chief Executive read a statement to this effect at his press conference late yesterday breaking the official silence which has been maintained concerning the trip of the Undersecretary of State to European capitals.

Roosevelt emphasized how that immediate meant immediate and not the distant future and that of course no one can tell from day to day what developments would take place. Thus he did not preclude the possibility that peace might come [illegible] a long war.

Although there may be no immediate prospect for the establishment of any just, stable and lasting peace in Europe his statement said the information made available to this government as a result of Mr Welles' mission will undoubtedly be of the greatest value when the time comes for the establishment of such a peace.

The prediction that the undersecretary's data would be most useful stirred speculation as to whether the President might make a move for peace when he deemed the time was ripe.

Mr Roosevelt reiterated in his statement yesterday that Welles had not made any peace proposals or commitments and had not received any.

NAZI CLAIMS

go out on a limb and try to put yesterday's publication off with the remark that these were after all the opinions of Polish ambassadors as to what American policy is.

Remember how at Cana the ruler of the feast complained to the bridegroom for keeping the best wine until the end. Maybe that's what we're doing.

Comment on the documents which the German foreign office said last night had been uncovered in the secret archives of conquered Poland pushed other news into the background as the morning papers blamed American diplomacy in great measure for the outbreak of the European conflict.

Principal targets of the Nazi press barrage were William C Bullitt, United States ambassador to Paris, Joseph P Kennedy ambassador to London and Anthony J Drexel Biddle Jr ambassador to Poland.

All three as well as President Roosevelt were mentioned in the documents. They consisted primarily of confidential reports in which Polish envoys in Washington, Paris and London were purported to have outlined for their government the view of American diplomats in Europe.

Hitler's Paper Outspoken

Adolf Hitler's Voelkischer Beobachter which was particularly outspoken in its editorial comment characterized as amazing the disclosures of the alleged activities of the American ambassadors to London, Paris and Warsaw in the tense days before the break of hostilities.

These three gentlemen — first of all Mr Bullitt in Paris — the newspaper said virtually made a point of honor to swing the still seemingly repugnant elements in the London government toward adapting Polish desires and thereby bringing Europe closer to war.

Asserting that Kennedy and Bullitt had played an ominous role in pre-war policies reflecting the irrevocable desire of the western democracies to finish National Socialist Germany by war the Voelkische Beobachter asked:

What in the world induced these gentlemen from far away America to assume not only the role as vehement advocates of Polish claims but even to encourage the Poles when they showed signs of weakening?

The documents released in Berlin covered in the main the period leading up to the allies pledge of March 31, 1939 to aid Poland in the event of attack. They also covered a period of some months earlier.

Typed in Polish Language

[illegible] out one of the documents the press received in the form of what purported to be photographic copies were typed in the Polish language. The [illegible] was described by German officials as a 1939 memorandum [illegible] Anthony Eden British statesman on a conversation with [illegible] Pilsudski of Poland.

Secretary of State Griffith Dies

a rural newspaper three times won awards as the outstanding country weekly in Ohio. Mr Griffith usually busy with politics kept a close watch on the paper and often went into the back shop to make up pages of type. Mr Griffith's political activity dated back approximately 15 years. His first bid for office was in 1936 for secretary of state.

Harry Earl Griffith was born July 13 1887 at Centerburg in Knox county to Harry S Griffith and Nellie Gunsaulus. His parents were residents of Mt Gilead, his mother having been visiting in Knox county at the time her son was born.

Attended Ohio Wesleyan

He was graduated from Mt Gilead schools and then attended Ohio Wesleyan university.

Mr Griffith was long active in civic and political affairs here.

He was appointed postmaster in the late '20s and was on his second four year term in 1934 when he resigned to become campaign manager for Clarence J Brown of Blanchester, Republican candidate for governor.

In 1936 he was the Republican candidate for secretary of state but was defeated in the Roosevelt landslide. In 1938 he was again picked by the Republicans and was elected.

Late in 1937 he was elected Eighth district committeeman on the Republican state central committee and served until the summer of 1939 when he resigned to give attention to his campaign.

Active in Fraternal Groups

Mr Griffith was affiliated with many fraternal groups in Mt Gilead. He was a 32nd degree Mason and was a member of Mt Gilead Chapter No 206 F and A M, Gilead Chapter No. 59 R A M and of the council and commandery at Marion and also of the Shrine. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge, Elks, the Mt Gilead Kiwanis club, Columbus Press club and Delta Tau Delta fraternity at Ohio Wesleyan.

He formerly served as president of the Kiwanis club and was a past master of the Masons.

He was a member of the Episcopal church.

Surviving are the widow Mrs Mayme Terry Griffith of Mt Gilead to whom he was wed in 1912, two daughters Mrs DeWitt Hunt of Mt Gilead and Miss Ruth Griffith a teacher in the Bellefontaine schools, a son Terry Griffith a junior at Miami university, two brothers James of Columbus who is secretary of Congressman John Vorys of Columbus and Verner of Cleveland and three sisters living in Columbus Mrs Lawrence Henderson, Mrs Sam Weldon and Miss Gene Griffith who is girls physical education director at North High school.

700 HEAR COUNTY SCHOOL MUSICIANS

Band and Orchestra Gives Concert at Edison Jr High.

A crowd estimated at 700 filled the auditorium at Edison Junior High school last night for the eighth annual instrumental music festival of the Marion county rural schools.

An 80 piece orchestra and a 119 piece band both composed of students from all the schools in the county played a two hour program under the direction of Prof Eugene J Weigel chairman of the music department at Ohio State university. Preceding the concert the two groups held an all-day rehearsal with Prof Weigel.

Both the band and the orchestra were organized last fall and have held rehearsals throughout the year under the direction of music instructors in the county schools who were in charge of arrangements for the concert last night. They are Robert Downs of Caledonia, Mrs Opal Durnell of Columbus, Milton Baker of Prospect, Richard Downs of LaRue, Herman Watson of Marion, Miss Janet Crider of Marion and Miss Arlene Smith of Martel.

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING M D

Rectal Disorders

THE LORD shall smite thee with the botch of Egypt and the emerods — thus Moses tried to frighten and discipline his wavering followers. He would have to think up something else today for emerods (hemorrhoids) are now treated so satisfactorily and with so little discomfort that there is no excuse for their existence.

Among the causes listed for constipation in my article recently were rectal diseases and they are the reason for much other ill health also. Most forms of rectal disease can nowadays be treated in the physician's office. The diseases suitable for this form of treatment are hemorrhoids (by injection), fissure, fistula (for some types), inflamed crypts, pruritus or itching.

I know of no type of surgery that seems to me to have made more advances concerning the comfort of the patient than rectal surgery in recent years. Nor do I know any branch of surgery in which the personal training of the surgeon results in any more rewards to the patient. The trained rectal surgeon has learned to be gentle and with the aid of his electric lighted instruments to survey the whole field of operation thoroughly before he begins.

The invention of various types of local anesthesia has allowed a great many procedures to be carried out in the surgeon's office thus saving the expenses as well as the inconvenience and discomfort of hospitals and interfering very little with the pursuit of the patient's ordinary activities and work.

Hemorrhoids or piles, especially of the external type, can now be removed by local anesthesia and injection in the office. What is called the acute bleeding pile is simply one in which the blood has become clotted. Many people walk around with these agonizing conditions which can be rapidly and safely alleviated. Internal hemorrhoids can be treated by injection.

FIVE FINED IN FRIDAY'S TRAFFIC COURT SESSION

Five motorists were fined $2 each in traffic court yesterday when they pleaded guilty to traffic ordinance violations.

Court officials reported that 12 motorists reported for traffic court but seven truck drivers were excused when they convinced the court they received tags for parking in alleys while making deliveries. An exception for these cases is provided in the city ordinance. The police department also excused 11 motorists who received tags for driving with insufficient lights when the lights were repaired.

Only four drivers failed to appear in court, the lowest number since the police department started their extensive enforcement campaign three months ago.

Twenty-seven tags were issued during the week, 11 of them for insufficient lights and a majority of the others for parking in no-parking zones, police reported.

MAN IN MARYSVILLE CASE TO START PRISON TERM

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE March 30—Samuel P Sloane will be taken to Ohio penitentiary in Columbus late today or early Monday to begin a term of not more than 15 years imposed in connection with a charge of violating the state securities law Union county officials announced today. Sloane, who was convicted in connection with vending machine rental contracts, was sentenced yesterday afternoon by Common Pleas Judge R. L. Cantrell.

HEATING CONTRACTOR GRILLED IN SLAYING

Questioning, However, Reveals No Clues in Co Eds Death

By The Associated Press

STATE COLLEGE Pa March 30—Grilling of an unmarried heating contractor through the long hours of the wet and dreary night apparently failed to yield a single clue toward solving the fiendish murder of 17 year-old Rachel Taylor, Pennsylvania state college freshman.

State motor police who closed doors of their Rockview prison barracks to all visitors during the more than five hours they grilled the suspect firmly declined to disclose any details of their inquiry but Sheriff Edward Miller reported no tangible evidence obtained.

The man was spirited from Philadelphia where he had been taken yesterday on the tip of an alert Negro porter who noted stains on his clothing and heard him say he had just arrived from State College where he had roomed for several years.

Quizzing of the suspect marked the principal police move since the chubby Miss Taylor's badly mutilated body was found early Thursday in the driveway of a school three miles outside town. She had arrived at 1:30 a m by bus from her Wildwood N J home. Two other co eds were the last to see her alive as she walked alone toward her dormitory.

A coat hooded over the 35 year old suspect's head shielded his identity as he was whisked from state police barracks after questioning to the county jail where he spent the remainder of the night.

The contractor's landlady said she talked with him at her home until 12:30 a m Thursday and as far as I know he was in the house after that.

Medical examiners said the short blond Miss Taylor probably was not criminally attacked but was mutilated by a sex moron. There were teeth marks on her chest. The body was sent home yesterday for burial.

FATE OF WEST UNION MAN IN JURY'S HANDS

Awaits Verdict in Slaying of Couple in Home

By The Associated Press

WEST UNION O March 30 — A common pleas court jury today deliberated the fate of Darwin Edgington 26 charged with first degree murder in the slaying near here Jan 30 of Mr and Mrs Craven Crooms.

Before receiving the case late yesterday the jury heard Prosecutor J W Lang of Adams county demand that Edgington pay with his life for slaying the couple whose bodies were found in the charred ruins of their home.

Attorney W P Tucker asked for mercy toward Edgington who pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

The jury last night asked Judge E S Young who presided what the prospects were for parole in the event of a verdict of guilty with a recommendation for mercy was returned.

Judge Young cited constitutional rights of parole by a governor.

SIX DEAD FOUND IN SOUTHERN TORNADO

Fifty Others Injured As Storm Sweeps Louisiana

By The Associated Press

PIERRE PART La March 30 —Tornadic storms striking hardest in Louisiana and dipping into three other states killed at least six persons, injured more than 50 others and caused considerable property destruction yesterday.

The most devastating blow was struck at this isolated fishing village of several hundred population. Four were known dead, about 30 were hurt and at least one, probably more, was missing here.

Storms of varying intensity were felt in many south Louisiana towns and disturbances were reported also in Texas, Mississippi and Alabama. High winds and rains visited New Orleans, New Iberia, Covington, near Baton Rouge, Bogalusa, Hammond, Amite and other Louisiana sections.

Rev Maurice Gubler, parish priest who was away on a mission at the time, said the church rectory and about 75 houses were broken into splinters at Pierre Part.

Three hundred school children escaped when the Pierre Part storm missed the building by a few hundred yards.

A score of persons were injured, two seriously, when a twister struck Gilbertown, Ala and destroyed a dozen homes. A church was destroyed at both Waynesboro, Miss and Bucatunna, Miss along with several homes at the latter town. Other storms were felt at Clarksdale, Miss, Bryant, Miss and Galeland, Tex.

FINAL DAY RUSH FILLS AUTO LICENSE BUREAU

Sale of 1940 auto license plates passed the 5,000 mark here this morning as motorists filled the license bureau on West Church street in a last minute rush for new tags.

Although there was a steady stream of applicants at the bureau throughout the morning Deputy Registrar James F Messenger said that from all appearances there would be no long waiting line as has been experienced here on the last day in past years.

The deadline for 1939 plates falls at midnight tomorrow night. But since the license bureau won't be open tomorrow it will be necessary for car owners to obtain new plates before the office closes at 9 o'clock tonight if they plan to have their cars equipped with legal licenses when the deadline passes Mr Messenger pointed out.

The state has not granted an extension of time and both city police and the state patrol have announced they intend to start picking up drivers cars bearing outmoded 1939 plates immediately after the deadline.

SALES TAX YIELD SHOWS GAINS IN MARION AREA

Sales tax receipts in Marion county during the week ended March 16 amounted to $5 505 87 an increase of 20 3 per cent over the $4 131 86 for the corresponding week in 1939 a report from State Treasurer Don H Ebright shows

This brought total collections in the county since Jan 1 to $51 067 91 which is an increase of 10 per cent over the $46 720 59 for the corresponding period last year the report shows

Total collections in the state for the week ended March 16 were $939 030 69 which was an increase of 27 per cent as compared to the $741 908 08 Mr Ebright stated that the sharp increase undoubtedly was due to unusually heavy buying before Easter and he pointed out that since Easter came at a later date last year the figures for last year do not take seasonal buying into consideration

Statewide receipts from Jan 1 to March 16 totalled $8 560 211 29 This was a gain of 13 8 per cent over the $7 510 760 67 collected during the similar period in 1939

Following are collections in nearby counties with corresponding figures for last year listed in parenthesis

Morrow county — week ended March 16 $800 15 ($376 29) Jan 1 to March 16 $6 441 62 ($5 238 81)

Union county — week ended March 16 $1 300 81 ($1 517 20) Jan 1 to March 16 $13 887 66 ($12 582 95)

Wyandot county—week ended March 16 $1 593 41 ($1 271 29) Jan 1 to March 16 $14 106 81 ($13 392 27)

Crawford county—week ended March 16 $5 615 92 ($2 752 01) Jan 1 to March 16 $37 370 90 ($31 182 20)

Delaware county—week ended March 16 $1 720 26 ($1 430 01) Jan 1 to March 16 $18 976 93 ($17 377 [illegible]2)

Hardin county — week ended March 16 $2 149 59 ($1 743 97) Jan 1 to March 16 $19 394 39 ($17 860 25)

JUST THINGS

By EDNA S DUTTON

Signs

SIGNS of the times For the first time in our lives we received directed to us personally a gorgeous catalogue of flowers And never were we so impressed with varieties Now we know why the true flower gardener would filch borrow or barter for the wherewithal to purchase just another variety of bloom be it roses petunias pansies of the poor man s orchid the lowly geranium But that s as far as most of us get—just a plain out and out catalogue gardener

Competition

FOLKS who date all events either before or after my operation stand a good chance of having some competition with we unfortunates who happened to have taken a hefty smack from old man winter in the form of bandaged wrists or wearing such adornments as birdcages on our arms Can t you just hear us oh yes they moved just the week I broke my wrist ' or Aunt Jennie s cow died a week to a day after my ankle turned on the icy pavement Well why not they of the operations have had the field to themselves long enough

Foxy Grandpa

SHADES of Foxy Grandpa! Not the one of funny page fame but a real honest to goodness chap who was known to all and sundry as Foxy Grandpa He would not rest well in the bosom of mother earth we fear could he see the de luxe trailers of today But his was a pioneer trailer home and he was as contented with it as though it were as modern as today s lipstick He arrived in town from where no one seemed to know or care parked on the village commons and just stayed on He took an active interest in the village affairs and earned enough to purchase his bread and kerosene and maybe a little snifter by mending shoes Maybe he got a bit lonely but if so no one knew it for when he stepped out of his door pipe going full tilt he was as chipper as could be Friendly and congenial except when mischievous boys decided to move his wagon when he didn t want it moved he was accepted by the citizenry and his yarns just added more zest to the long evenings around the village store

Madge Fears Seizure of Intruder Will Bring Dangers

THERE WAS something so determined in Edith Fairfax s words that the protest against the sacrifice she was voicing died upon my lips She still was in the flagellant mood and there was no use at present in even discussing her decision to give up her share of the magazine

But knowing that her joy in making a success of the business venture had closely paralleled her love for Dicky it seemed to me that renouncing both at once might be too much for her might throw her into a dangerous state of mental apathy in which her just declared resolve to accept the lifelong devotion of her distant kinsman Jim Paige might be lost

She had been too near hysteria however for me to risk any opposition to her mood especially as I knew that in a few minutes I must get her out of my room in order that my father or some one named by him could use the speaking tube from my room to the attic where Lillian had discovered that some marauder was concealed

Decision Deferred

So deciding mentally that when Edith was in better condition Dicky and I would take up the question of the magazine with her and that in the meantime we would keep on with work as usual I spoke in as soothing fashions as I could manage

Everything shall be just as you wish Ede But we can t do anything about it until this present mess is cleared up and there s something in which I need your help right now

I had struck the right note She looked up at me with animated interest replacing resigned apathy in her eyes

What is it you want me to do? she asked

Nothing very hard I returned smiling back at her But my father wishes to make some experiments with the speaking tube in my room and as he ll probably have two or three men in here with him Lillian and I thought you d be less disturbed in her room It s quiet and she has everything all ready for you So if you feel able to walk that far I d like to take you over there

Obedient but Reluctant

She was sitting up as I finished and swung her feet from the bed to the ground

I m able to go anywhere you wish she said but I had seen her wince when I mentioned Lillian s room and knew that she dreaded contact with my truculent friend who she could not help but know viewed her with disapproval

There s one thing I want you to know I said with careful casualness Nobody is to come into the room where you are except me unless you ring for Katie and give an order to the contrary And when my father is through with this room I ll move you back here

She gave a relieved sigh

I won t deny that is grateful and relieving news she said And I m ready to go now

Note From Lillian

I put my hand underneath her elbow and steadied her progress out of the room and down the hall to Lillian s room finding it ready for occupancy but with no trace of its mistress save a little note addressed to me lying on the table by the side of two keys I opened it and read its short message to me

Here are duplicate keys to the room it said Suggest that you give one to Ede and lock the door with the other carrying it away with you Then Ede will be able to get out if she wishes but nobody else will be able to get in unless you approve Think also it might be well to tell Ede there may be queer noises—and smells—around after a bit but that she mustn t be frightened nor yet pay any attention to them Nobody is going to be in danger

But when I had relayed the note to Edith with a lame explanation which carefully avoided any mention of the man hiding in the attic and had given her the duplicate key I locked Lillian s door from the outside with a distinct doubt of her assurance that nobody was going to be in danger

"Bethel Merriday"

Wright s have an impressive list of new books in the Rental Collection for spring Heading the list are Bethel Merriday —Sinclair Lewis latest—and Other Gods by Pearl Buck

Bethel Merriday is the story of a girl who becomes an actress and of all the odd gallant vicious and noble people she meets through her work Better than most of his recent novels it is based largely upon Sinclair Lewis own experiences with actors and actresses during his recent stage career This book is more a caricature than a satire For real satire read Other Gods—story of the hero who lets adulation go to his head—and of the trouble this makes for his charming wife The hero is a composite of various heroes and Mrs Buck did not mean to picture any specific persons but many readers may believe he is meant to be Lindbergh especially as his reticent society girl wife (who writes poetry) suggests Anne Morrow

No More Gas by Nordhoff and Hall is a lively entertaining story of the happy go lucky Tuttles of Tahiti The members of this delightful improvident family are lucky fishermen but their own shiftlessness seems to cheat them out of any material results of their catch

Thus Dr Mallory by Elizabeth Seifert is a very human and satisfying story of the trials and tribulations of a young doctor

A charming story in the leisurely English style is The Morning Is Near Us by Susan Glaspell The Californians by Louise Redfield Peattie is a tale of the Hollidays—rich magnificently generous and assured They adopted Nappy who so worshipped them that he married Corona Holliday when she was to have another man s child—and taught Corona the difference between showy openhandedness and real selflessness

This Side of Glory by Gwen Bristow is the story of the battle between the twentieth century South and the old plantation families After Many a Summer Dies the Swan by Aldous Huxley is crowded with amusing characters and situations

All of these are available in the Rental Collection at Wright s Book Store 170 South Main St

Powell, Loy At Marion

"Another Thin Man" on Double Bill with "Wolf of New York."

"Another Thin Man," third of the "Thin Man" comedies with William Powell and Myrna Loy, will be brought back to the Marion Sunday and Monday on a double feature bill with "Wolf of New York." Debonair Mr. Powell and his smart young wife have a spine-tingling murder chase and prove you can be romantic though married and parents of an eighteen-month-old "Thin Man Jr." The story centers around the murder of a tycoon friend on his palatial estate. Powell follows the devious trail of the killer through two other murders and a series of bizarre happenings. Edmund Lowe and Rose Hobart head the cast of "Wolf of New York," a melodrama built around the issue of circumstantial evidence and whether or not it should be accepted in courts of justice when a life is at stake.

The two pictures Tuesday and Wednesday will be "My Son Is Guilty" and "Night of Nights." The first named is the story of the ne'er-do-well son of a fearless policeman, roles played by Bruce Cabot and Harry Carey. Jacqueline Wells plays Cabot's childhood sweetheart and Wynne Gibson plays the head of a gang of which her late husband was leader. George E. Stone, Roland Young, Olympe Bradna, Pat O'Brien and Reginald Gardiner are featured in "Night of Nights," a romantic drama set against Broadway's Great White Way and the Lambs club, famous organization of theatrical folks.

"Too Busy To Work," featuring the Jones Family and a first-run Gene Autry musical western, "Rancho Grande," will be shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Jones Family picture is the fifteenth this group has made. Smiley Burnette of course is co-starred with Autry. June Storey and Mary Lee are the feminine interest.

piece, he is also a great lover of his love—notwithstanding that he is middle-aged and fat and not very attractive to her undiscerning eye. He is an artist, as all good workmen and all great lovers are.

And since his wife and his work are his life, the loss of one wrecks the other. His wife and his work are his joint pride, and now his pride is broken. Because his pride is broken he cannot bake good bread. And because he cannot bake good bread, the community is injured.

So now the village mobilizes to get his wife back. Pan has disrupted the community, and Pan fears the mobilized community, and above all that voice in it which purports to be the voice of God. The wayward wife sees her beautiful lover is full of fears. He is not so strong as she thought—not nearly so strong as the baker.

So she returns home, and the bread is baked again and the community returns to backbiting and dissolves into its usual wrangling components—after a love scene between the wife and her husband of such mature tenderness and such self-mockery as one rarely sees or hears in the theater.

This is the world of men, the film says. But it does not say it like this—it is not an essay; it is theater. Thus are men. They are hungry; their bellies crave bread and their hearts crave love. Whoever can feed their stomachs and their hearts has power. He is precious; he is the true leader, and the community in a showdown will support him out of self-preservation.

It was some time after I had left the theater that I began to realize that "The Baker's Wife" has social significance—as every true word, every true gesture, every honest look taken at life always has social significance.

I am told that the lighting is amateurish. This column would give up a lot of expert lighting for a fraction of the honesty, simplicity, truth and immense talent in this film.

FOOD ISN'T QUITE TO THEIR LIKING

Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour and Bing Crosby don't look particularly happy about their menu in the above scene from their picture, "Road to Singapore," now at the Palace through Tuesday.

"The Road to Singapore" Now Featured at Palace

Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope Bring Songs and Romance to South Seas Film.

Five new songs dot "The Road to Singapore" story which came to the Palace screen today for a four-day stay. The songs are sung by the trio of stars, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope.

Johnny Burke and James V. Monaco wrote the tunes, "Too Romantic," a torchy number, "Sweet Potato Piper," a novelty, and "Kaigoon," the number in which LeRoy Prinz's dancing girls perform. The other numbers are "Captain Custard" and "The Moon and the Willow Tree."

Jerry Colonna, popular funster of the radio, Charles Coburn, Judith Barrett and Anthony Quinn head the supporting cast.

Bing and Bob play two sailors who go to the South Seas to get away from women and matrimony. But they meet up with Miss Lamour (in sarong) and they're soon off on the wrong track again.

Spencer Tracy and glamorous Hedy Lamarr are co-starred in the Thursday-Friday picture, "I Take This Woman."

The picture provides Tracy with the first romantic lover role he has ever played on the screen.

The story deals with a social butterfly who, after a wrecked romance, finds her real love and happiness at the side of an earnest scientist working for the public good in a tenement clinic.

Action ranges from fashionable night clubs and fashion salons to the tenements. Veree Teasdale has the chief comedy role and Kent Taylor plays Tracy's rival in love. Other players include Laraine Day, Mona Barrie, Paul Cavanagh, George E. Stone, Dalles Frantz and Louis Calhern.

"Courageous Dr. Christian," another of the series based on the radio serial and starring Jean Hersholt, will be shown on Wednesday.

An "Information Please" short and a travelogue on St. Augustine have been booked for the program with "Road to Singapore."

"Sky Patrol" On Double Feature Program at State

"Sky Patrol," an action-packed aviation drama starring John Trent and Marjorie Reynolds, and "Fifth Avenue Girl," a light comedy in which Ginger Rogers and James Ellison are co-starred are on a double-feature bill at the State theater tomorrow and Monday.

Tuesday and Wednesday the State will feature "Trapped in the Sky," starring Jack Holt and "Full Confession," in which Victor McLaglen and Sally Eilers have the featured roles.

The end-of-the-week bill, Thursday through Saturday, will include "Mutiny in the Big House," starring Charles Bigford and Marton McLane and "Rebel*lious Daughters," in which Mar*jorie Reynolds and Sheila Bromley have the featured roles.

Ohio Shows 'The Grapes-'

Film Version of Famous Novel of "Okies" Here Through April 6.

The drive and power of John Steinbeck's famous novel, "The Grapes of Wrath" were retained under the sensitive direction of John Ford in the motion picture version now in a 10-day stay at the Ohio.

Tom Joad, who is played by Henry Fonda, remains the courageous figure Steinbeck created. Jane Darwell plays Ma Joad, the indomitable Oklahoma mother who laughs and cries, scolds her brood and defies the forces which would tear her family apart.

One of the most difficult roles, that of Casy, the garrulous, crusading preacher, is done by John Carradine. Charley Grapewin, noted character actor, has the role of "Grampa."

Dorris Bowdon, one of the screen's most promising young actresses, plays Rosasharn. Others in the cast include Russell Simpson as Pa Joad; O. Z. Whitehead as Al; John Qualen as Muley; Eddie Quillan as Connie and Zeffie Tilbury as Grama.

Location Director Otto Brower, subject of an interesting article in one of last week's nickel magazines, shot more than 25,000 feet of film for background material. Brower followed the trek of the Joad family mile by mile along Highway 66, exactly as it was described by Steinbeck.

To insure absolute fidelity to the original story, Nunnally Johnson, who wrote the screen play, conferred with Steinbeck over the compelted script.

The trek of the "Okies" to California is told in all the stark drama that raised such a furore when the novel was first released. Some of the dialogue was cleaned up, but the forcefulness of Steinbeck's writing was retained. Steinbeck himself asked Johnson to see to it that the rugged good humor of the Joads was incorporated in the movie version of his work. "The Okies live in a rough world," explained Steinbeck. "They hide their circumstances behind a drawling wit. They are too tough and too courageous to wail over troubles."

The picture will remain at the Ohio through Saturday, April 6. The following day "Three Cheers for the Irish" will take over the screen. It will be shown four days under auspices of the Inasmuch Circle of the King's Daughters.

SATURDAY MARCH 30 1940

Our Mr Welles

HIS countrymen are as puzzled about Mr Welles trip to Europe on his return as they were when he started

They are told that he suffered from influenza while abroad They have been informed that he talked to Mussolini Hitler Daladier Chamberlain and a great many secondary characters in official circles

They do not know what he told them or what they told him They gather that if his mission was to bring peace it was unsuccessful there are no signs of peace They take it for granted that he had no other mission except to assemble facts for President Roosevelt

The presence of a small brown case in his personal luggage is supposed to confirm the belief that he did assemble facts This is circumstantial evidence however The case might contain souvenir postcards Until this doubt has been cleared up there seems nothing further to say about Mr Welles Americans hadn t been reminded for a long time what a mysterious gumshoe business secret diplomacy is

Pedometers for Legislators

OHIO supreme court s dismissal of the state legislators appeal from the common pleas court decision that mileage allowances should have something to do with mileage heartens the weary taxpayer Besides claims of $21 507 dismissed $5 557 in claims already paid must be returned to the treasury

The mileage racket gets under the taxpaying skin Some legislators can t understand it but their constituents fail to see why any jobholder should be paid for a journey he doesn t take It has the appearance and the odor of common dishonesty even when cloaked and perfumed with technicalities

In 1936 the general assembly recessed and reconvened 40 times in one day so the journal would show weekly meetings throughout a recess of 140 days It was a good trick It almost worked But it so happened that the technicality was blown up by a technicality when the case reached the supreme court Set a technicality to catch a technicality

Meanwhile taxpayers in Ohio and in the United States are wondering why legislators shouldn t be fitted out with pedometers Then they d at least have to swing their legs to clock trips they get paid for but don t always take

Blow to Something Else Too

AMERICANS who look seriously the promise of federal economy had the string pulled on their hopes when the house of representatives went overboard on CCC and NYA

But there is one detail of the plunge that shouldn t be missed

As nearly as could be ascertained at least 150 members of the house of representatives were absent when the vote was taken Since neither increase carried more than 134 votes—one carried by only 10— t is an even bet that there were enough votes among the 150 absentees to change the decision

Why were the congressmen absent when a policy vote was being taken? Probably because they didn t want to be present for fear of being placed in the position of voting against increases for two popular agencies They preferred to let economy take a licking to taking the licking themselves The damage to the budget may be undone the damage done to public confidence by such antics is irreparable

Allies in Fact

EFFECT of the declaration that Britain and France will stand together in refusal to discuss peace terms until the security of each is guaranteed scarcely can be called reassuring

Only one thing could inspire such assurance of unity—the suspicion of disunity The declaration closely resembles in this respect one of those statements from political notables that they have nothing but the friendliest feelings for dear old Elmer—when they suspect Elmer is getting ready to let them down

Perhaps the suspicion is unworthy of the allies It is difficult in that case to understand why they chose to attract it

Crisis at Indian Lake

SEN DONAHEY the lawmaker who doesn t care for lawmaking has asked for legislation making Indian Lake his home a national wild life refuge Nothing short of a major crisis could have caused this.

During his term in the senate Ohio s ace vote getter has introduced something like three or perhaps it s four bills He hasn t attempted to save the nation in any of them He will retire without having contributed anything to the perplexities of the common law

But when it comes to wild life Sen Donahey s feelings are stirred Three of his pet swans and several domesticated geese were killed by hunters on Indian Lake last fall Ohioans hope the senator s bill will be pushed through as an emergency measure even if it means delaying the appropriation of a few billion dollars for something or other It s the least other senators could do for a brother who never added anything to the complications of being a senator

News Behind the News

Agent from Berlin Reported in N Y for Meeting with Dr Schacht

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON March 30 — Government agents have discovered that a semi private banker from Berlin—one who handled speculative matters for the Reichsbank—has moved into a fancy New York hotel Extensive nature of his quarters has suggested he contemplates an extensive business the character of which is not yet apparent

Agents have tried to trace down a rumor that the official German speculator would meet with the illusive Hitler economic wizard Dr Schacht for whom the British at Gibraltar searched the Conte Di Savoia in vain Best available information indicates the Berliner is handling cable transfers of funds to Germany through neutrals particularly Switzerland and Holland

The state department shook slightly at a report that he intended buying American planes for Hitler shipping them across the pacific to Vladivostok He could cause considerable diplomatic embarrassment if he tried it but he couldn t get any planes American manufacturers have their excuse ready—too busy now

Wallace

Agriculture Secretary Wallace did not blink when he indorsed the farmer union s enlarged subsidy for land bank borrowers although his chief Mr Roosevelt has twice vetoed bills to the same effect (congress adopting one over his veto)

In 1935 congress first passed the Wheeler bill reducing land bank interest rates to 3½ and 4 per cent which the President in his veto message said would cost the treasury $38 000 000 a year Subsequent experience has shown the actual cost to be $50 000 000 annually Now Mr Wallace wants the rate lowered to 3 per cent claiming the cost will be only $365 000 000 from the treasury over a seven year period

The administration farm spokesman did not disclose any emergency necessity in the farm belt to justify the change at this particular time Only emergency reported here is the political one resulting from Messrs Vandenberg s Dewey s and Taft s campaigning on the hustings At least the farm boss conversion has come on the heels if not as a direct result of Democratic political apprehension Whether the same heels have turned Mr Roosevelt around Mr Wallace did not indicate

But the agriculture secretary s determination to provide the softest possible money lending policy was earlier suggested by the firing or resignation in protest of his farm credit administration s governor general counsel and land bank commissioner when he took control of that organization

Denials

He denies these manifestations portend a change to soft money He has announced there will be no further foreclosures but his agents claim this policy was really instituted quietly last September He even denies his absorption of FCA means what it seems, pointing out Roy Green his new land bank commission appointee is not a soft money man

In fact he denies he wanted to take control of the lending agency His official inside version is that Dr W I Myers former FCA governor and now head of the department of agricultural economics at Cornell university started it all by getting the president to issue an order that the FCA would remain on an independent basis and merely report to Wallace instead of to the secretary of the treasury The comptroller general ruled however that Wallace had to take the responsibility so he also took the control

The only thing clear through this cumulous haze of denials is that the easier money bill is going to get through congress and that Mr Wallace has approved it including its provisions permitting farmers to re-buy their land at depreciated value within five years after defaults

Third Term

Minor evidences continue accumulating that Mr Roosevelt intends to renounce a third term but not necessarily in his ten minute talk to young Democrats April 20 The reports can be traced to outside surmises based solely on the political nature of the occasion Most politicians doubt that the President will speak out until he has gained complete control of the convention after it assembles so that he will have no trouble designating the nominee

Barlow

War department will quietly arrange for a demonstration of the Barlow liquid oxygen bomb which amazed newsmen at a private demonstration this week An army observer was present at the publicity demonstration He has refused to talk even to his associates but his superiors understand he considered it only slightly more powerful than TNT Nevertheless war officers would like a more complete test to ascertain its sensitiveness its ability to withstand impact and whether it will last 30 hours without recharging as the inventor claims

War Life in England

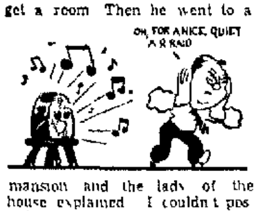
Rooms Scarce in 'Safe Areas, Blackouts Cause Mishaps

By THOMAS YARBROUGH
Associated Press Writer

LONDON March 30—Short subjects from wartime England

A poor schoolmaster who tried to clear out to a safe area reported a rough time

He tried 15 homes but couldn t get a room Then he went to a mansion and the lady of the house explained I couldn t possibly let you have a room—I m so short staffed I m here on my own with only a butler and two maids



OH, FOR A NICE, QUIET AIR RAID

At last he found a room in a little cottage but the radio was so loud he went to work for the local air raid precautions organization—so he could go to his post and study in peace

A London man groping through the blackout walked into a parked car and bounced back with a face laceration A judge awarded him $60 damages against the driver

Imminent rationing of newsprint has forced newspapers into condensed reporting such as this George Robey (a chill) was much better last night

Persons imprisoned for being Germans or friendly to the Germans are entitled to a daily pint of ale stout or cider or half a bottle of wine

The port of Plymouth put on a noisy welcome for the men of the cruiser Ajax when they came home from their fight with the Graf Spee but not a cheer went up when they arrived in London Somebody was supposed to have sent a band but it didn t show up

When Sir John Reith replaced Lord Macmillan as boss over the ministry of information it reminded The Daily Telegraph s Peterborough of that famous remark by Henry XIV L etat c est MOI — The state is myself So many people asked him the point he explained to explain later that in this case MOI stood for Ministry of Information

G B Shaw informed that New York drama critics had called his Geneva dull, boneless and tedious replied Compared with what some American critics have said about my plays I find these remarks quite encouraging

Color scheme When motorists go faster than 20 miles an hour in the blackout a blue uniformed bobby in a white coat flags them down with a red flashlight

Each day the London weather bureau takes all the information which it figures is available to the German forecasters and hands it to an expert Then he makes the best forecast he can on that basis In the words of the bureau it differs considerably from the official secret British forecast

On The Record

French Film, 'The Baker s Wife' Wins Columnist s Praise as Work of Art

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

ONCE in a blue moon one sees a motion picture which is written produced and acted for adult human beings and has the power to give those who view it that unique and distinguished intellectual experience associated with the word art It is amazing in view of the technical perfection of the screen theater and in view of the millions that are spent sometimes for a single picture how seldom one enjoys this experience One sees pictures that are clever pictures that are beautiful and amusing and almost always pictures that are technically amazing but one almost never sees a picture that really opens up a new vision of the human heart or mind, or emotions or is suggestive to the imagination

Dorothy Thompson

In fact one almost never sees human beings on the screen people who look and act like human beings or throw light on human beings or awaken any of those deeper feelings of pity understanding sympathy pride and tenderness—that catharsis of the spirit—that the work of art can induce By and large all that is recorded on the screen is surface—surface emotions surface behavior

When a genius like Walt Disney departs wholly from reality he creates creatures who are a thousand times more real than most of the faces bodies and behaviors that one sees in the other million-dollar pictures

Pinocchio for example is a rich tender absurd bizarre infinitely gifted work of phantasy by the man who has become the leading American moralist who makes films for children which become films for adults because they are the work of a philosopher and remain films for children because they live in tha world of the innocent imagination where children live

Unforgettable Film

This is a prelude to saying that I walked into a shabby little theater the other night—a theater that looks as though it were made to house a large sized Punch and Judy show—and saw a picture I cannot forget

The picture is The Baker s Wife and it is French

The Baker s Wife is let us say a love story It is a story about a great lover He is not a great lover because he is handsome and glamorous

He is a great lover because of his capacity to love, and for that reason and no other He is fat and middle aged and often quite absurd He is a comic figure as true lovers always are for love makes men terribly weak and terribly vulnerable He is in love with his wife That in itself is prosaic, from the general standpoint And his wife who is pretty rather sultry and half his age is a worthless little creature who runs away with a shepherd a French village version of Pan This is a ridiculous situation The deceived husband is an eternally ridiculous figure Everybody in the village thinks that he is ridiculous he knows it himself and the sense of his own indignity is half his tragedy

The man with the easy wife is the village baker a newcomer His predecessor was a wretched baker whose bread was sour and soggy And from his shiftlessness and lack of competence the whole village suffered the marquis the priest the schoolmaster the villagers They all ate bread—the staff of life in a French village—and all lamented the blasphemy of bad bread But the new baker is a master of his craft He is the perfect workman And because he knows his job he is essential to the happiness of that village

Works With Passion

WASHINGTON, March 30—Into the Cactus Jack Garner the othe d Ca us Harry Carey

Occasion for the visit was simply th was in town, making his return to after 29 years He wanted to see and c the vice president whose chair he occ that "Mr Smith" mo e

Jack

Occasion for this yarn was that the two got to reminiscing and out of that came a remarkable example of how life goes round and round John Nance Garner the son of a westerner becomes a big politician Harry Carey the son of a big New York politician, becomes a westerner

Mr Garner no doubt could give Harry cards and spades and beat him to death at the political game but Carey Pere would have given Mr Garner a ru money

Pop says Harry was one of old Croker s Tammany district leade s in and a judge of the court of special sess

Carried An Umbrella

He anticipated Chamberlain by years—used to wear a high silk hat a an umbrella rain or shine Only was he used it all the time—used it to sun off as well as the rain

Golly what a bunch of thieves around Tammany in those days Even F franchise It was for a two mile horse way through Pelham Bay park Pop and charged 10 cent fare

Seems like there was a state law days that you couldn t charge more cents on any street railway so Pop w up to Albany umbrella and all

They put him on the pan told him lated the law and Pop says Now gen know the law For years I have bee bench Doesn t that law say that no railway company can charge more cents? But does it say anything about panies not being able to charge five ce Well gentlemen my two-mile railway by two companies One owns one mile the next You can look up the articles poration And gentlemen if you wa here and issue an order that the tho poor people who ride those railways h off at the end of the first mile in rains and bitter cold and transfer to company s railway just to comply wi law then I guess I ll have to take up with the voters

Well that was the last Pop e of that

More Trouble

He did have a little trouble later they were building a wooden bridge a Island Pop wanted to run his horse across there They wouldn t stand for nigh after the bridge was finished a mixed gang of his Italian and I together and between midnight and d laid those rails across that bridge

The next morning Old Dobbin w the car across the bridge and the car with an armed force Pop was on waving his umbrella He just grinned car was stopped and he shouted Gen you want to hold up the United S you ll have to take the consequences in their faces he waved a full govern pouch

How Pop ever got the United St ernment to throw in with him on th know but that horse-car carried U long as the opposition could remembe

Yessir Pop was a great politic cludes Carey

Pop has my vote Harry He ur could give the modern boys aces in th beat hem with a deuce down draw Vice President Garner in the game

Britons Like Dollars

LONDON—Scotland Yard is on t British citizens who have bank acc taining American dollars

Under the defense (finance) regu foreign currency must be declared a for sale to the treasury

But the English pound has los the outbreak of war and it is possi may lose more value before the w Some Britons therefore are reluc close their dollar holdings

The first case under the new de was that of Captain Gregor Willi justice of the peace of Sheffington fined $400 and $80 costs for concealin session of $20 000

In a statement to Detective Inspect ald of Scotland Yard Tailby adm transferred his dollars to New York

My reason for transferring this was that I contemplated purchasin the Bahamas on which to build a dence he added I regret my omis close these dollars to the treasury a pleased to offer them now

Sir Robert Dummett, the magistra You may have been singularly but to any ordinary person it looks t as if you were trying to conceal what you were doing

I take the view that you knew well about these regulations and th liberately tried to evade them by se dollars to New York

British citizens withholding their the treasury will in the future be more severely and will probably be sentences

Louis Keeps Title With Kayo in 2nd

Paycheck, Down Three Times in First Round, Throws Only One Good Blow, Fans Wonder Who's Next

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK March 30—Mr Editor—you might as well keep in type that headline Joe Louis Wins It looks as if there'll be plenty more opportunities to use it

The Brown Bomber still is champion of the world with no indication he'll have the crown knocked from his crown by the present crop of heavyweights He disposed of the Johnny Paychek threat if it might be dignified by that name 44 seconds after the start of the second round in Madison Square Garden last night

That pile driving right that lifted the partly bald 25 year old Iowan off his feet and sent him to the canvas left Promoter Michael Strauss Jacobs and 11 620 fans asking themselves—Who's next? There are Arturo Godoy the durable Chilean Roly Poly Tony Galento Max Baer and Bob Pastor But all have felt the dynamite packed in Louis fists

May Be Godoy

Godoy who stayed 15 rounds with Louis during the winter may get a summer shot at the title or it may be the winner of the May engagement in Jersey City between Galento and Baer

Then you can rest assured Jimmy Johnston will be on hand to do some talking for his boy Pastor

Probably the less said about last night's fight the better Louis has had shorter fights but even he refused to admit his first round knockouts of Max Schmeling John Henry Lewis and Jack Roper were any easier The Bomber swung just five real blows Four of them he used in flooring Paychek three times each for the count of nine in the first round The fifth finished the fight

Paychek's offensive was practically nil unless the lefts he kept flicking around at random come under that category The only blow he struck was a looping right which just grazed the champion's chin after Johnny was down for the second time Louis couldn't recall that

Pale at Start

The Des Moines fiddler was pale at the start He was white as a sheet after feeling the power of the right that sent him down for the first count of nine He told Referee Arthur Donovan he was okay after going down the second and third times but later in the dressing rooms he said he didn't know a thing after Joe connected with his first right—much less the instructions that Benny Leonard gave him between rounds

As for Champion Joe he was so unruffled that he even considered not taking a shower His chief thought was to catch the 11 15 train for the west He did with plenty of time to spare

The gross gate of $62 481 was the smallest return attracted by Louis since he lifted the crown from James Braddock three years ago

NEW WAIVER RULE WORRIES M'CARTHY

Believes It May Reduce Yanks' Incentive To Hustle.

TAMPA Fla March 30—The new American league rule which forbids the championship club to obtain players from other teams in the league except at the waiver price has Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees a little worried an official of another club says

If Boston does beat them this year McCarthy will feel that this rule had something to do with it he said Joe doesn't say so in as many words but he thinks it's a bad rule and could have a damaging effect on some players

Certainly it reduces their incentive to hustle because they know they are sure of their jobs Every regular on the club and most of the substitutes absolutely know they won't be traded and there isn't much chance of the Yankees selling any of them

Personally I don't think any of the Yankees are the type to take advantage of the situation but you never can tell One of the things that has made Joe a great manager is the knowledge his players have that Joe won't hesitate an instant to trade them if they don't play to suit him no matter how good they are

SCHOOL AREA TRANSFER OPPOSED IN MORROW CO.

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, March 29—Petitions protesting the dissolution of the Gilead township school district and transfer of the territory to adjoining consolidated districts are now being circulated and will be presented to the county board of education in a few days.

Members of the Gilead township board state that practically all residents of the district, in which two one-room schools were operated last year, wish to remain in a separate district and are opposed to consolidated.

The dissolution action of the county board was taken at their last meeting and will be effective Monday unless court action is resorted to by the Gilead township residents since the county board members have stated they will not reconsider the action.

QUINTUPLET LAMBS BORN ON FARM IN HARDIN CO.

Special to The Star

KENTON, O., March 30—Quintuplets were born this week at the Melvin Nickell farm home, southwest of Kenton, but only one of the five was living today.

Nickell said a ewe from his flock of sheep gave birth to five lambs, all of which were alive. The ewe was unable to care for the group and, despite efforts of the Nickell family to hand-feed the animals, four died. The one is expected to live.

Mr. Nickell said the ewe previously had given birth to three sets of triplets in three successive years. She was able to raise all of her previous lambs.

The Stars Say—

For Sunday, March 31

SUNDAY'S forecast presages a day of memorable events, with the prospect of the attainment of unusual and outstanding ambitions and desires. These may reach into the fastnesses of spiritual, mystical, romantic and practical life, according to the aspirations and abilities. There may be surprise and unforeseen adventures and experiences.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year of unpredictable and unprecedented experiences. There may be sudden change, adventure, romance and thrills, as well as intrigues and strategies. The new and strange in contacts and expression assure some sort of dynamic and far-reaching attainments.

A child born on this day may have such a wide scope of talent and versatility as to attain extraordinary heights of accomplishment, probably in new or radical forms, expression or experience.

For Monday, April 1

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for a particularly lively and enterprising day, with affairs moving with drastic force toward the attainment of sound objectives. It is a time for working forcefully and bravely for major projects, despite certain opposition from elders or other forms of determined frustration.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a very lively and exciting year, with things moving at quite accelerated tempo, and possibly with some tempest and hostility. The latter may be from elders or a group action of sinister force. But constructive and practical programs win out.

A child born on this day may be bold, audacious, determined and aggressive, with practical creative ability as well as keen insight.
